

Cross Departmental Clinical Team: Stronger Together

David Martin, CAE (Chief Executive Officer & Executive Vice President)

Dave Hanson, MSN, RN, ACNS-BC, NEA-BC (Director of Program Strategy & Partnerships)

Dawn Herman, MBA, BSN (Associate Director, Accredited Continuing Education)

We do not have any material financial relationships or other relationships to disclose.

Today's Objectives

- Describe the purpose of the SCCM's Cross Departmental Clinical Team.
 - Review the various projects undertaken by the SCCM's Cross Departmental Clinical Team.
 - Discuss how members of the SCCM Cross Departmental Clinical Team serve as clinical experts, advisors and consultants within and across the Society.
-

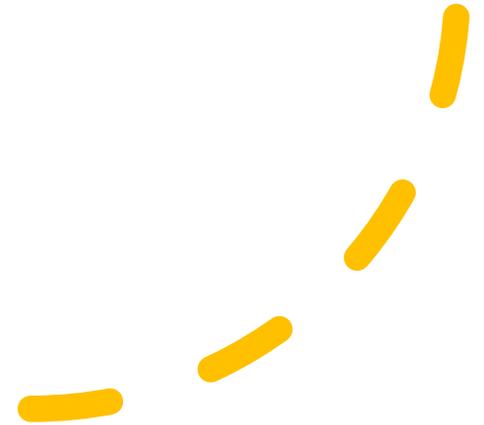

Identification of Key Takeaways

- Tools and knowledge for replication
- Understanding of key benefits
- Value of creating a forum for clinical staff

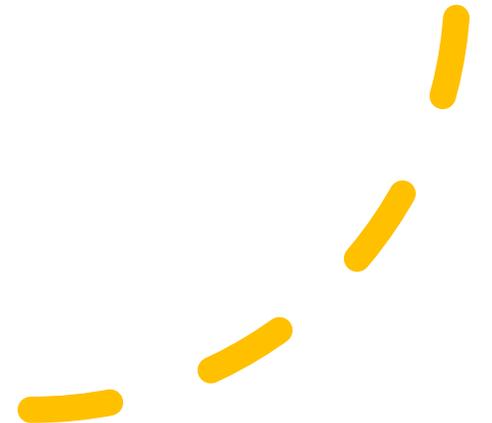

Multiprofessional Team Composition

- 1 – Clinical Laboratory Scientist
- 1 – Clinical Psychologist
- 1 – Physician Assistant
- 2 – Physicians (MDs)
- 2 – Public Health Practitioners
- 5 – Registered Nurses
- 1 – Executive Sponsor

Team Purpose

- Come together
- Engage in cross departmental strategies
- Make improvements
- Members serve in various capacities
- Interactions

“Alone, we can do so little; together, we can do so much.”

-- Helen Keller

Team Accomplishments

- Alleviated barriers
- Communication and collaboration
- Learning Management System (LMS)
- Learning categorization

Team Accomplishments (Continued)

- Enhancements to learning modules
- Supported grant development
- Organized knowledge areas and keyword search terms

Thank You!

